What you bring:

Personal clothing sufficient for temperatures 90 degrees – freezing (wool and synthetic are preferred to cotton) • Rain jacket/pants • Performance sandals/ water shoes (Chaco, Teva, Keen) or light hiking shoes • Dry shoes and warm socks for camp • Water treatment equipment (pump filter, SteriPen or iodine) • Compass • Headlamp • Fishing gear • Sunglasses • Sun screen • Hat • Camera • Insect repellent/barrier • Personal toiletries • Reading material, playing cards etc.

Complete Food includes all meals and miscellaneous items (matches, dishwashing kit, t.p., etc.) packed in a Granite Gear canoeing pack, ready for you when you arrive. You choose your menu from a wide variety of choices.

Complete Equipment includes everything from Complete Outfitting except food.

Non-profit groups with a tax-exempt number receive a 10% discount off prices above. No other discounts apply.

Youth 17 years and under receive a 10% discount off prices above if accompanied by two full paying adults. No other discounts apply.

Canoe preference discount: The prices above include Kevlar canoes. If you take Wenonah Spirit II Royalex or Aluminum canoes and plastic paddles, subtract $6.00/person/day.

Meals: The prices above include three meals per day. Depending on your schedule, you may drop meals from the first and/or last day of your trip. Subtract $7.00/person for meals dropped from Complete Outfitting or Complete Food.

If a member of your party cancels, please tell us right away. If we pack for a person and are not informed of the cancellation before your arrival, plan to pay for that person.

A BWCA Wilderness Entry Permit is required by the U. S. Forest Service. You can check permit availability and make your own reservations online at: www.recreation.gov or 1-877-444-6777. Or, contact us and we'll reserve your permit for you.

Deposits - $50 deposit per person is required to confirm your reservation. Full refund will be issued if you cancel more than 5 days before your scheduled arrival at Sawbill.

The balance is due on the day your trip begins. There is no refund if you return early from your trip.
